The same Day put in here, the Schooner William, John Peck, Master, from Jamaica, bound for Rhode-Island.

Last Thursday embarked in the Sloop Betty, for Rhode-Island, Mr. Philip Hawkins Merchant, and Mr. Nicholas Langford Bookseller.

On Friday sailed with his Majesty's Mails for Jamaica, the Comet Packet-Boat, commanded by Capt. Michael McDonogh.

Yesterday the Ship Star, Robert Cook Master, which sailed over the Bar on the 3th Inst. came again into this Harbour.

This Day arrived here in Capt. Bachop's Schooner from St. Augustine, Lieut. James Moncrieff, of his Majesty's Royal Regiment of Artillery, and Mrs. Moncrieff.

F A C T S.

Capt. Richard Maitland, in the Ship Magna-Charta, arrived here from London, October 21st, 1773. Capt. Alexander Curling, in the Ship London, also arrived here on December 21st following, with 257 Chests of Tea shipped by the East-India Company, subject to an odious Duty, payable in America, for the express Purpose of raising a Revenue without our Consent. The Minds of the People being extremely agitated by this Importation, a GENERAL MEETING was called, and held, on the 3d of the same Month; when it appeared to be their Sense, that no Tea subject to such Duty should be imported—an Agreement was signed by many Gentlemen in Trade—those Gentlemen to whom the East-India Company's Tea had been consigned, generously declined to receive the same—and Capt. Curling was told, that it was expected, he would not land but carry the said Tea back to London. This it was then thought he could, and expected he would do, and all was quiet again. December 19th, there was another GENERAL MEETING of the Inhabitants, when it was resolved, that the said Tea ought not to be landed, received, or vendid in this Colony; and that no Tea ought to be imported by any Persons whatsoever, while the Act of Parliament imposing the unconstitutional Duty remained unrevoked. Notwithstanding these Resolves, some unforeseen Difficulties having occurred, which had put it out of the Power of Capt. Curling to comply with the Expectations of the People, the Tea brought by him were, on the 23d, very early in the Morning, and very expeditiously, landed and stored, by the Collector of his Majesty's Customs, who had made a Seizure thereof, as he was indispensably obliged to do. But so general a Dissatisfaction prevailed among many of the Inhabitants, as soon as it was known, that the Landing of the said Tea could not be prevented, without committing some Act that might have been deemed violent, that even at the Time of the Seizure it was not easy for moderate yet active Men to refrain others within due Bounds. Capt. Maitland having been here 39 Days before the Arrival of the Tea-Ship, as well as during the whole Period of these Transactions (22 Days) and as he did not depart this Port before the 7th of January, 16 Days after the Seizure of the Tea, so it could not be supposed that he was a Stranger to them, or to the Sense of the People. Therefore, when the late General Committee were informed (June 28th) two Days after Capt. Maitland's Return from England, that some Tea, subject to the same Duty, were imported in his Ship, they received the Information with Astonishment. An immediate Enquiry being made, it appeared by his Cockets, that he had 3 Chests on board; two consigned to Mr. James Wakefield, and one to Mr. Wm. Donaldson. These Gentlemen were thereupon desired to attend the Committee; and, attending accordingly, respectively declared, that the Tea in Question, came quite unexpected to them, being Part of some old Orders, which, through mere Inattention, had not been countermanded; that they had no Intention to set counter to the Sense of the Community; on the contrary, that they were ready to agree to any Thing which might satisfy their Fellow-Citizens; and they promised not to receive, or pay the Duty on the said Tea, but to return the same to the Shippers, if practicable. The Committee being satisfied with these Declarations and Promises, Capt. Maitland also was waited on, and requested to attend. He did so, and was pretty freely reprehended for that Part of his Conduct which appeared inconsistent; after which he was told, that since he had brought in the Tea with his Eyes open, it was expected he would bring himself out of the Difficulty in the best Way he could, so that it should not be landed, or the Duty thereon paid, in this Colony. Capt. Maitland endeavoured to acquit himself of any Design in bringing the Tea, by declaring, that he knew nothing of its being on board, till after he had put to Sea, and was affording his Cockets; that he did not mean to bring the Inhabitants of this Colony into any Difficulty; that he would rid as of the Tea, and it would be easy, as he had signed no Bond for it. He promised, upon his Honour, that it should not be landed nor pay the Duty here, and that we should hear no more of it; then made a free and voluntary Offer, if he could get rid of the Tea no other Way, to throw it himself into the River, and at his own Cost—with which Declarations, Promise and Offer, that Committee were satisfied, relying upon the Honour of Capt. Maitland, who had always, to that Time, borne the Character of an honest Man. But this Morning, at 10 o'Clock, an Intimation was given, to the Chairman of the new General Committee, that notwithstanding Captain Maitland's Promise upon his Honour, and the free Offer accompanying it, the Tea brought in his Ship were intended to be landed and seized on that Day. Whereupon the said Committee were immediately assembled, at the Exchange; and being well assured of the Fact, it was voted, by a large Majority, "that Captain Maitland ought to be held to his Promise, and the Tea ought not to be landed." At this Instant, some Person called out, towards the Close of the Debate, that the Tea had been landed, and was actually brought to the Door of, and stowed in, the Cellar where the East-India Company's lay deposited. The Indignation this gave Rise to, is hardly to be described; but the Meeting of the Committee was instantly adjourned, till two o'Clock; and they saw one whole Chest lying at the Door, and the two others already stored in the Cellar. Upon Enquiry, the People who had gathered together were informed, that it was in the Custody of the Collector, and seized by him; whereupon they were prevailed on to separate. The Committee being called to meet again at Two o'Clock, re-assembled accordingly; and Capt. Maitland, being sent for, attended. He was asked, if he had not promised and offered as before-mentioned? He acknowledged he had; but added, to colour his Failure in Promise, that when he made it, he expected to go to New-York, and his Voyage having been since altered, he could not comply with it. On so unexpected an Event, and on such an Occasion, it might naturally be expected, that Capt. Maitland would be addressed with some Degree of Warmth, and he was sufficiently reminded of his Honour. However, after some Debate, the Chairman was directed to inform him, that it was expected, he would still destroy the Tea, as it had been his voluntary Offer. He agreed to do so, and added, that he would burn it on the Wharf, in Presence of the Committee: Upon which the Meeting of the Committee was adjourned, for that Purpose, till To-morrow Forenoon, 11 o'Clock.

ADVISES from LONDON.

MAY 2d, THIRTY American Gentlemen (16 of them Natives of this Province) petitioned both Houses of Parliament, that the Boston JUSTICE and REGULATING Bills (or, as others stile them, the Murder and Breach of Faith Acts) might not be passed; but their Petitions were ordered to lie on the Tables, equal to being thrown under them.—Mr. Bollan, Agent for the Massachusetts-Bay, also presented a Petition, which met with the same Treatment.—All Opposition, in the House of Commons, to the passing of those Bills, proved ineffectual.—In the House of Peers, 21 Lords voted against the American Measures; 11 entered a Protest against the Regulating Bill on the 11th of May; and 3 against the Justice Bill, on the 18th.—But the Royal Assent was given to both Bills on the 20th.—June 3d, the Royal Assent was also given to a Bill to provide commodious Quarters for the Officers and Soldiers of his Majesty's Troops in America.—In the Course of the Debates upon the Regulating Bill, Lord North displayed the high Opinion he had of the commercial Gentlemen, by asserting, that "the Trade of Great Britain could not be injured by all the Colonies re-senting the Treatment of Boston; for, that a trading People minded nothing but their present Interest, and would trade with the Devil for ONE PER CENT. extra Profit."—The same noble Lord had before called an Union of the Colonies, a Rope of Sand; judging it impossible, that such an Union could be effected, where so many entirely depended on Trade, amongst whom, in his Opinion, "present Interest only is minded, and One per Cent. extra Profit" has such mighty Influence.—Has he not also, more than once boasted, that he placed more Dependence on the Ladies in America, and the general Disposition to Luxury and Dissipation, for the Success of his Measures, to establish the Duty on Tea, and keep the British Manufacturers from complaining, than upon the Measures themselves, or even an Army, relying on their Want of Resolution to debar themselves of any Thing, even to save a whole Continent? But his Lordship may be excused in this; as he certainly is a Stranger to the Virtue and Resolution of the American Ladies, who probably may soon convince him, that they possess enough of both to do their Country essential Service, and blast his sanguine Expectations.—The Troops already sent to America are said to be provided with Ammunition equal to SIXTY-FOUR ROUNDS per Man!—The 5th and 13th Regiments, sailed from Cork for Boston, May 9th.—And Orders had been issued for two more Regiments of Infantry to be held in Readiness, to embark upon the shortest Notice. By all which it seems, as if the Ministry had in Fact, tho' not in Form, declared War against his Majesty's Subjects in North-America; but even that will not alienate the warm Affection they bear him.—MAY 10th, the French King, Louis XV. died of the Small-Pox, in the 64th Year of his Age. His Successor Louis XVI. wants a Month to complete his 20th Year. Lord North (in Parliament) has been so abundant in this new Monarch's Praise, as strongly indicates, that there is no Misunderstanding between him and that Prince. The Duc de Nivernois is supposed to lead the new French King's Councils in public, and the Duc de Choiseul behind the Curtain. The latter Honour is now attributed to Lord Mansfield in England, in Concert with the Earl of Eute.—MAY 29th, His Excellency Governor Tryon, of and from New-York, arrived at Falmouth.—MAY 31st, Two several Petitions were presented, from some Merchants trading to Quebec, and from the Hon. Thomas and William Penn, Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, against a Bill for the better securing the Civil Government of Quebec, (another of Lord North's favourite Productions) which, according to what appears in the Debates upon the second Reading, is the most pernicious Bill ever offered to Parliament—meant to establish the Roman Catholic Religion and French Laws in that Province—and, as it allows Tythes to be collected by the Romish Priests, ought to have originated in the House of Commons, and not in that of the Lords.—MAY 27, The same indefatigable Lord, proposed the raising a Revenue for paying the Civil Government, and for the better Administration of Justice in Canada, by imposing the following Duties, over and above any already in Being there, viz.

ON RUM.
From the West-India Islands, —	3d. per Gallon.
From North-America, —	6d.
From Foreign Islands, —	6d.
ON MELASSES.
From the Sugar Islands, —	1d.
From North-America, —	6d.
ON BRANDIES.
British, —	1d.
Foreign, —	12d.
ON LIQUORS.
To sell Liquors, —	10s. 10d.

And in Course of the Debates, his Lordship revealed, that in Case the Canadians by distilling all their own Liquors, should baulk Government of the above Duties, he had another Scheme, which would equally answer the same Purpose, for "he would move for EXCISE OFFICERS to be appointed, in order to collect the inland Duties;"—a Favour, which, many do not doubt, his Lordship has long had in View, to confer upon all North-America, and may probably accompany a new STAMP-ACT—after he has laid the Bostonians at his Feet.—A new Bill was brought in for allowing the East-India Company a further Time to export their Bohea and Singlo Teas.—And it was expected, that the Parliament would rise on the 14th or 16th of June, unless any Advices from America should in the mean Time arrive, to render their longer Sitting necessary.—We cannot conclude our London Advices, without inserting amongst them, That the Duke of Richmond (on the Measures pursued against America) said, "if the Americans were thus to be treated, he could not help wishing them Success in their Resistance;" and, upon Lord Mansfield's apologizing for Words spoken in the Heat of Argument, and saying, "he was sure his Grace would correct himself," the Duke re-worded his Expression, and formally appealed to the Bench of Bishops, "whether it did not well become a Christian, to wish Relief to all those that were heavily laden?"

CHARLESTOWN, JULY 25.

LAST Tuesday Morning, 11 o'Clock, the General Committee met, in Consequence of their Adjournment the Day before, to see Capt. Maitland deliver the Tea that had been landed the preceding Day: When, upon re-considering the Matter, and that it could not be got out of the Collector's Custody, without Violence or paying the Duty, both which the Committee were equally disposed to prevent, it was agreed, that the said Tea should remain as a Seizure, under the same Circumstances as the India Company's, not to be sold in this Colony, unless the Duty thereon should be repealed. But Capt. Maitland being looked upon as a Man who, by his Conduct, had grossly imposed on and deceived the Committee, and insulted the People, it was resolved to appoint a Sub-Committee to wait on all Importers, and request that they would not hereafter ship or receive any Goods whatever, in any Bottom wherein he was or should be concerned; and a Committee was accordingly appointed. The People in general being much disappointed in their Expectations of seeing Capt. Maitland burn the Tea that Day, they were so much enflamed at his Conduct, that it was impossible to prevent a considerable Number of them going in Quest of him that Evening. What they might have done, had they met with him, it is impossible to tell; but they seemed inclined rather to make a public Exhibition of him, than to do him a bodily Injury: However, he eluded their Search, by slipping away, and remaining on board his Majesty's ship the Glasgow, in Rebellion-Road, whither his Ship soon followed him, and now lies Windbound, since which he has not thought proper to appear on Shore.

The same Day arrived here the Ship Briton, Captain Urquhart, from London, in which came Passengers, the Hon. Thomas Irving, appointed Receiver-General of the Quit Rents in this Province, and a Member of his Majesty's Council, with Mrs. Irving.

A curious Extract of a Letter from a Mr. MURRAY in Boston, to his Friend Deft. Archibald McNeill, lately deceased, in this Colony—received about a Month since.

"OUR Sons of Liberty, as you'll see by the Papers, have at Length procured for themselves a smart

Dose of Correction; but they make Faces and take it with bad Grace, which will not make the Operation the easier. — Will your Colony, and others of the same Stamp, take Warning by our Discipline? If they do not, they will certainly come in for their Share, now JOHN BULL is roused. — The late Feats here have had one good Effect — to put Government in Mind of some, who dared to show themselves in Support of it [as we are told he did, in the Service of Barnard and Hatchings] among others your humble Servant is like to come in for a small Acknowledgment, about 250 l. per Ann. in Office of Inspector of Exports and Imports, lately held by Thomas Erwin, Esq; who is appointed Receiver-General for your Province. — The Good of this Office to me is, that it can be executed without taking me quite from my beloved Amusement, viz. Farm. — [A most admirable Correspondent at this for Lord North and a fine Specimen of the humane and benevolent Disposition of some People, towards the NATIVE AMERICANS.]

Capt. Urquhart having brought Five Chests of Tea, one for Mr. Tunno, and four to Messrs. Johnston & Simpson (for Mr. Penman at St. Augustine) those Gentlemen attended the Meeting of the General Committee last Wednesday Evening, when Capt. Urquhart declared that he knew not of his having any on board, till he examined his Caskets on the Day of his Arrival, before he brought his Ship up to Town, upon being informed of what had happened to Capt. Maitland. He was requested to bring none in future, unless the Duty should be repealed, and very readily answered he would not. Messrs. Johnston & Simpson, and Mr. Tunno, respectively behaved, upon this Occasion, as worthy Citizens, and declared, that they would not receive the said Tea, not having ordered any. — As the Twenty Days within which the Duty is required to be paid, will expire on the 7th of next Month, the presumed the said Tea will be seized, by the Collector, on the 5th, and stored with the Rest.

Last Tuesday arrived here, his Majesty's Packet-Boat Swallow, commanded by Capt. William Copeland, with the May Mail from Falmouth.

The same Day put into this Port, the Sloop Dolphin, James Colvin, Master, from New-York, having Major Furlong, of the 14th Regiment on board; and Yesterday proceeded for St. Augustine.

On Thursday last arrived the Ship Portland, Captain Wilson, from London, with the following among other Passengers, Mr. Gilleg, Mrs. Sepha Crouch, Mr. Manson, &c. Capt. Wilson refused to bring out some Teas that were offered him on Freight.

The same Day arrived the Ship St. George, Captain Mair, from London — also, without Teas on board.

On Friday last arrived here in the Brig. Seanymp, Captain Moore, from Philadelphia, Mr. George Noarth and Mr. John Milne, of Philadelphia.

The same Day sailed, with the Mails for Jamaica and Penfcois, the Diligence Packet-Boat, under the Command of Capt. John Fargie.

The Measures pursuing by the British Ministry, respecting the North-American Colonies, are likely to occasion a very considerable Reduction in the Revenue; great Numbers of Planters in Maryland, Virginia, and North-Carolina, having turned their whole Attention from Tobacco to Wheat. And the same Cause will prevent the making of Tobacco in this Colony, just as it was bidding fair to become a very considerable Staple.

The Friends of Freedom in Georgia have advertised a General Meeting of the Inhabitants, to be held at Savannah, on Wednesday next.

And on Thursday last there was to be a General Meeting at Wilmington in North-Carolina.

There is not a British Colony on this Continent, except the military Governments, but Collections are making in, for the Relief of the suffering People in the devoted Town of Boston: And the assembling of a grand Continental Congress of Deputies, seems to be a Measure universally approved of, except by the Bernardines and Hutchinsonians.

Two of our Deputies to the aforesaid Congress, viz. the Hon. Henry Middleton (who was many Years a Member of His Majesty's Council here, but had Virtue enough to quit it, when he found he could be no longer of Service to his Country there) and Edward Rutledge, Esq; (a young Gentleman of most promising Talents, bred to the Law, and a Barrister) will embark on Saturday next for Philadelphia, in the Brig. Charles-Town Packet, Captain Wright.

Admiral Gayton to relieve Admiral Rodney, arrived at Jamaica, in the Antelope, on the 27th ult. — and Admiral Rodney was to sail from thence on the 10th Instant.

Price of Rice, 50 s. per 100 lb. — Quantity cleared from this Port, 91408 Tierces.

[NUMB. 2011.]

MONDAY, JULY 25, 1774.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, at the Printing-Office on the BAY, near the EXCHANGE.

From the PUBLIC LEGER, May 25, 1774.

YOU will permit me first to pay my compliments to YOU, and then to convey my respects to the Public. If my manner is rough, you must impute it to the uncouthness of my Scotch nature; we are a rugged, hardy, and until the reign of YOUNG TIBERIUS, we WERE a rebellious race; now we are Courtiers, in the true sense of the word; we are gentle as the sporty fawn which licks the lily hand of some Great Man's Mistress; we are crouching as spaniels; have as much COURT-CRAFT as Lucifer himself, and, like the vicious brood, had we the power, we should dart our venom at the life of Young Tiberius for fostering us in his Princely Bosom.

Does any man doubt this? Calls any man for proof? I shall not reason, I will establish my point by a reference to a living and very NOTORIOUS example; I will refer to a CAUSE JUSTICE, who, from the NIPPLES of DECEIT, sucked in the MILK of TREACHERY for his nutriment, and has thrived most happily by defiling the Prince he loves, and clinging to the FOOL, he, from his inmost soul, detests supremely.

Thus much for my APOSTATE MINISTERIALIZED Countryman; now, Mr. Printer, for YOU.

What news from the Treasury? Does the Minister come down handomely? SAGITTARIUS, alias Mr. KNOX, Lord Dartmouth's Secretary, hath "done the State some service," and they ought to know it. You too have your Merits; the Public Leger no longer breathes the spirit of Public Liberty; (excuse the pun) a KNOXIOUS spirit hath of late been infused into it; may you all be rewarded! When Parliaments are abrogated, and the King, agreeable to the wishes of his corrupt Ministers shall rule without, may you be made Printer of the EDICTS, and good Mr. SAGITTARIUS KNOX, Keeper of the Records of the Acts of Tyranny.

Now, Sir, for the Public.

The American Bills have passed, and the system of American slavery is completed, as far as THEORETIC documents can complete it: But, thanks to the Author of Nature! between Theory and Practice the difference is extreme. A set of Nincompoops may PLAN Laws, but the question is, whether a wife and brave people will submit to the EXECUTION? With respect to the American measures, the Bostonians have nothing to do but to behave with firmness and with spirit, and those very measures will revert with tenfold destruction upon the heads of the Ministers or Tyrants who planned them. It is impossible that a system founded on injustice, can be completed in equity. Let us recite the treatment our fellow subjects have met with, to be convinced of its injustice, and satisfied of its VILLAINY.

Admitting the Bostonians to have acted, in some instances, wrong, why deny them an opportunity of SELF-VINDICATION? why refuse to hear what they had to say? Is condemning the innocent in common with the guilty, is this substantial justice, or substantial CRUELTY? Is passing Acts depriving English subjects of their franchises, and that unheard, is this parliamentary? is it constitutional? is it not repugnant to every principle of Law and Equity? The Bostonians, both in point of law and in point of fact, should have been heard by their Agents; at present they are condemned on SUGGESTION, and punished without the testimony of a single witness: they have been plundered of their chartered Rights, by the MOST PROSTITUTE, ABANDONED, and CORRUPT HOUSE OF COMMONS, that ever disgraced a free People by their atrocious deeds. A set of men, assembled at Westminster by means of Ministerial Corruption, and when knit together by the social tie of mutual bribery, these are the men who, Slaves themselves, want to enslave their species; they call themselves a FREE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE, but are as much entitled to that appellation as the Members of the Parliament of PARIS, yet by these are our American Brethren deprived of their rights.

Nor that alone, they are traduced by every hireling Writer, and grossly vilified in every public Print. For this purpose SAGITTARIUS insults our patience; the task assigned him is to transcribe from Lord Dartmouth's Office Papers, Speeches, Letters, and Addresses; but to what doth all this drudgery tend? To prove that the Americans have for years been OPPRESSED by the Mother Country, and that for years they have been engaged in a glorious struggle to PRESERVE THEIR LIBERTIES. If Mr. Knox's labours evince not this, they evince nothing.

But what are we to think of the Minister, whose measures stand in need of the varnish of Literary Profligates? What are we to say to the man who lavishes the public money in hiring men to libel a whole People, and at the same instant would interfere in procuring a public-spirited Printer to be punished by an executive fine, for spreading abroad truths of consequence for the People to be told?

The efficacious struggle our American Brethren have made to preserve themselves from that abject state of slavery into which Great Britain is so fond of plunging our people, and calls for thankful approbation. If they but persevere in RESISTING the despotic proceedings of a Ministry, whose abilities reach no further than to carry every corrupt measure in a HOUSE OF THEIR OWN PACKING; if the Americans do this, those SONS OF LIBERTY may not only preserve their OWN freedom, but be the happy instruments of restoring to us OUR long-lost immunities. We may catch the generous flame, and contend unto blood for what is dearer than life. SAGITTARIUS may yelp, and his associates traduce, but every man on this side the Atlantic, possessing a spark of independence, must wish, that the GOD OF FLEETS AND ARMIES may stretch forth his hand in defence of the natural rights of the Americans.

What shall it be called REBELLION in a People, to resist a swarm of Locusts in the shape of TAX-MASTERS? Shall it be called REBELLION to oppose the establishment of a profligate Crew of Stamp-Collectors? Is TARKING and FEATHERING a set of scoundrels, who deserved it almost as much as Lord North, is this an ACT OF REBELLION? Is refusing to let a Tax-gatherer pick the pockets of the People against their consent, is THIS too REBELLION?

Or let us touch on things more consequential: Is it REBELLION to DEPOSE the present Minister, and with the PRESENT Parliament AT THE DEVIL? Then is almost every independent Man in England a most REBELLIOUS SUBJECT; for, all except Placemen in possession, or expectancy, think the present Minister a PUPPET, and the PRESENT Parliament a PACKED ASSEMBLY of venal, very venal GENTLEMEN.

This is certainly libellous, for it is really TRUE.

A SCOTCHMAN.

PUBLIC TREASURY, March 21st, 1774.
SOUTH-CAROLINA.

THE Public Treasurers would gladly give the Public such a Description of the Counterfeit Bills now passing in this Province, as might effectually guard every Person from being imposed upon: But there are such a Variety of them (every Emission since the Year 1743 being counterfeited, except the Tax Certificates for the Indian Trade) that it is impossible. The only two distinguishing Marks that run through the most of them are these, viz. The Figures in the numbering are very bad, and the Names of the Signers are impressed by the Plate, instead of being wrote with a Pen.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

In the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY,
March 18th, 1774.

RESOLVED,

THAT this House will make no Provision to pay the Expence of Viſtualling, Cloathing, or for Presents given to, any Indians whatsoever who may hereafter come into this Colony, unless especially sent for by the Governor or Commander in Chief, on Affairs immediately relative to the Colony.

ORDERED, That the Clerk do give public Notice
in the Gazettes of the said Resolution.

By Order of the House,

THOMAS FARR, jun. Clerk.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

and Freeholders who try Slaves, of the Condemnation and Execution of any Slave and Slaves for Felony, Murder, or any other Crime to be hereafter committed, and of the Value of such Slave or Slaves, PROVIDE such Sum or Sums, as a Compensation to the Owner or Owners of such Slave or Slaves, as shall appear to this House reasonable, additional to the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds provided by Law.

ORDERED, That the Clerk of this House do give public Notice of the said Resolution; and also, it is expected, that all Magistrates and other Persons who shall be concerned in the Valuation of any Slave or Slaves to be condemned and executed, do have particular Regard to the Nature of the Offence which such Slave or Slaves are convicted of, and how much the Value of the said Slave or Slaves are lessened thereby.

By Order of the House,

THOMAS FARR, jun. Clerk.

The SUBSCRIBER,

Business of various Kinds, and having been frequently employed in public Writings of the greatest Importance, he flatters himself that his Facility and Expedition, as well as his Accuracy in adjusting Accounts, are sufficiently known: And as he shall leave his Employment at the Custom-House in a short Time, he has been advised, by several Gentlemen of considerable Property and Influence, to engage in the following Plan;

To undertake and perform all Manner of Writings, and settle Accounts however intricate, whether relative to the Merchant, Planter, or Mechanic, with as much Clearness and Dispatch, as any Person in the Province.
